Any Person inclinable to purchase any of the above Premises, may know the Terms and view the Premises by applying to the Subscriber, living near Elk-Ridge-Landing.

(ts) JOSHUA GRIFFITH.

N. B. All Persons indebted to me are desired to make immediate Payment.

I HAVE several Times in this Manner begged my Customers to come to a Settlement, but find they pay little or no Regard to my Requests; I now for the last Time desire all Persons that are indebted to me for Dealings, One Year or upwards standing, either for Ordinary Expences, Blacksmith's Work, for Fish, or any other Contract whatever, here, at Piscataway, or at Elk-Ridge-Landing, to come immediately, settle, and pay off the same. For Payment I will take Beef, Pork, Wheat, Oats, or Credit in any Store in Piscataway, Elk-Ridge-Landing, Queen-Anne; or Mr. Kinsey Johnson, Merchant, Pig-Paint. All those who neglect paying me off; between this and the 20th Day of November, whose Accounts will bear an Action in Court; may depend on them being given into an Attorney's Hands, and those Accounts that are smaller, shall be collected by the Constable without respect to Persons. But hope every one concerned will comply with the above, which will prevent Trouble and Expence to themselves, and greatly oblige w6 ALEXANDER BURRELL.

N. B. I have appointed Mr. Henry Jones to demand, settle, and receive all my Accounts, and his Receipts shall be good against my Books.

A. B.

WHEREAS a certain Joseph Cheny, it is said;

has been concerned with a certain Timothy Ragen in Horse-stealing; and as I have been taken up and suspected to be the Person, having the same Name; now, in order to convince the Publick that I am not that same Person, and that there are more of my Name, I do deny that wicked Action, and defy any Person whatsoever to prove any such Thing upon me, or to charge me with any such Thing to my Face. I am to be found almost any Day at my Plantation on Antietam Creek, where Ezekiel Cheny formerly lived, and near Mr. Joseph Helm's. Also I will sue any Person that dare lay a Hand on me, or was concerned in any such Thing.

JOSEPH CHENEY, Son of RICHARD.

w6 WILLIAM GODDARD.

THERE is at the Plantation of John Pryce, near Upper-Middlesex, taken up as a Stray, a light bay Mare, about 12 and an half Hands high, has a bald Face and one wild Eye, Four white Feet and no perceivable Brand. The Owner may have her again, proving Property and paying Charges.

JOHN PRYCE.

Baltimore-Town, Maryland, October 16, 1772.

To THE PUBLICK LIBRARY.

IT is the Sentiment of the wisest and best Men that adorn our Age and Nation, that the Liberty of the Press is so essential to the Support of that Constitution under which we have hitherto derived the Blessings of Freedom, that it becomes every one to consider, in the most reverential Light, this Palladium of our Rights—in Opinion every Friend to Liberty and his Country must universally prevail.—And, as nothing hath a greater Tendency to secure to us that inestimable Blessing, than the encouraging and supporting well-conducted News-Papers, which is generally acknowledged, dilect Ignorance, the Parent of Slavery, gives a Taste for Reading, and causes useful Knowledge to be cultivated and encouraged. I flatter myself a Proposal for establishing another publick Paper in this great commercial Province, will meet with the Approbation of its publick spirited Inhabitants in general, those of this flourishing Town and County, in particular, and be encouraged accordingly. The many important Advantages that flow from such Institutions, are so well known to the busy Part of Mankind, as well as to Gentlemen of Leisure and Curiosity, that Arguments need not be used, on this Occasion, to illustrate their apparent Utility.

Encouraged by the polite, candid and generous Invitation I have Time since received from many Gentlemen of the most respectable Characters, to establish my Business in this Town, and affected with a lively Gratitude for past Kindnesses, as well as for this Instance of their favourable Opinion of me, I have determined to comply with their Wishes, so very obligingly manifested: For which Purpose, I have engaged a suitable Printing Apparatus, which will be speedily here, and, under Favour of the Publick, I intend to prosecute the Printing Business, in this Places, in all its Branches, both in the English and other Languages, in a neat, correct and expeditious Manner—and, in particular, I now propose to publish, by Subscriptions, with all possible Expedition, a Weekly News-Paper, under the Title of

THE MARYLAND JOURNAL,

BALTIMORE ADVERTISEMENT.

To be printed in four large Folio Pages, equal in Size to any of the Pennsylvania Papers, at the moderate Price of TEN SHILLINGS current Money, per Annum, one Half to be paid at the Time of subscribing, and the Remainder at the Expiration of the Year—to be published regularly every Saturday Morning, unless another Day should appear more agreeable to the Subscribers, and delivered immediately after to the Custodians in Town, and forwarded to those who live in the Country, and Places adjacent, by the earliest Opportunities:—To contain every material Piece of Intelligence, either foreign or domestic, with Accounts of the Arrival and Departure of Ships, the current Prices of Goods, the Course of Exchange, Deaths, Accidents, and Events of every Kind, that may be thought interesting to the Publick,—to enable myself to do which, I have already established an extensive Correspondence, and shall not only receive all the different Weekly American Papers, but also the best News-Papers, political Pamphlets, Registers, Magazines, and other periodical Publications of Great-Britain and Ireland, as well as the most valuable Paper of German Advice, from whence the most useful and entertaining Extracts shall be occasionally made:—So that there will be scarce any remarkable Occurrence, extraordinary Phenomenon, curious Invention, or new Discovery in Nature or Science, but what the Reader will find such Information as may enable him to judge for himself concerning it.—I shall also take particular Care to insert all the judicious original Essays, in Prose and Verse, on political and other Subjects, with which I may be favoured by the Learned and Ingenious,—and of this I may assure the Publick, as well as my own particular Correspondents, that the Freedom of the Press shall be maintained, the utmost Impartiality observed, and every well-written Piece admitted, without Scruples that does not tend to destroy or impair our excellent Constitution; injure the Cause of Liberty, disturb the Repose of Society, give Offence to Modesty, or, in any Shape, reflect Scandal on a News-Paper.

Advertisements shall likewise be accurately published, in a conspicuous Manner, with great Punctuality, at the customary Prices.

As those who promise more than they are able to perform, are justly Objects of Ridicule, I should rather wish my Performance should exceed than fall short of the Proposals; to effect which no Diligence or Attention shall be wanting on my Side,—which will, I persuade myself, meet in Time with a proportionable Return from the generous Publick—as soon therefore as I shall obtain a sufficient Number of Subscribers barely to defray the Expence of the Work, the Paper shall be published.

Subscriptions are taken in at the Coffee-Houses in Baltimore-Town and Annapolis, and by the several Persons with whom Subscription Papers are left,—and I should be much obliged to any Gentleman or Lady, in Town or Country, for his or her good Offices in promoting this my new Undertaking. I am, with the utmost Demeanor and Respect, the Publick's most obedient and devoted humble Servant,

w6 WILLIAM GODDARD.
